

2011 Fall Workshop Schedule

Time	Date	Title	Instructor	Description
2pm	8/23/2011	Intro to Smart Boards for Faculty	TBD	This introductory session will acquaint faculty with both the physical interaction with the Smart Board and desktop controls and features. Pedagogical applications of the tools will be addressed, but the primary focus will be on technical features rather than instructional strategies.
2pm	8/26/2011	Intro to Smart Boards for Faculty	TBD	This introductory session will acquaint faculty with both the physical interaction with the Smart Board and desktop controls and features. Pedagogical applications of the tools will be addressed, but the primary focus will be on technical features rather than instructional strategies.
2pm	8/30/2011	Developing an Integrative Assignment	Laurel Mayo	Learning Community faculty members require at least 2 “integrative assignments” during the semester to help students create cross-disciplinary connections. This hands-on workshop will walk you through the process of developing an integrative assignment with one or more of your peers.
2pm	9/2/2011	Developing an Integrative Assignment	Laurel Mayo	Learning Community faculty members require at least 2 “integrative assignments” during the semester to help students create cross-disciplinary connections. This hands-on workshop will walk you through the process of developing an integrative assignment with one or more of your peers.
2pm	9/6/2011	Writing Quality Rubrics	Laurel Mayo	Clearly written, easy to follow rubrics provide your students with distinct map to follow when completing assignments. This hands-on workshop will walk you through the process of writing new or tweaking your existing rubrics as well as provide a handy check-list when designing any assignment.
2pm	9/9/2011	Writing Quality Rubrics	Laurel Mayo	Clearly written, easy to follow rubrics provide your students with distinct map to follow when completing assignments. This hands-on workshop will walk you through the process of writing new or tweaking your existing rubrics as well as provide a handy check-list when designing any assignment.
2pm	9/20/2011	Lights, Camera, Lecture!	Laurel Mayo	Great movie makers keep their audience’s attention in a dark room for hours on end. Learn how to integrate these innovative techniques into your lectures for better attention, retention, and engagement of your students.
2pm	9/23/2011	Lights, Camera, Lecture!	Laurel Mayo	Great movie makers keep their audience’s attention in a dark room for hours on end. Learn how to integrate these innovative techniques into your lectures for better attention, retention, and engagement of your students.

2011 Fall Workshop Schedule

Time	Date	Title	Instructor	Description
2pm	10/4/2011	Intro to Smart Boards for Faculty	TBD	This introductory session will acquaint faculty with both the physical interaction with the Smart Board and desktop controls and features. Pedagogical applications of the tools will be addressed, but the primary focus will be on technical features rather than instructional strategies.
2pm	10/7/2011	Intro to Smart Boards for Faculty	TBD	This introductory session will acquaint faculty with both the physical interaction with the Smart Board and desktop controls and features. Pedagogical applications of the tools will be addressed, but the primary focus will be on technical features rather than instructional strategies.
2pm	10/18/2011	Understanding the Advising Process	Laurel Mayo	This workshop goes beyond setting up a semester schedule to address strategies for enhancing your mentor relationship with your student advisees. Share your expertise and add to your advising toolbox in this interactive session.
2pm	10/21/2011	Understanding the Advising Process	Laurel Mayo	This workshop goes beyond setting up a semester schedule to address strategies for enhancing your mentor relationship with your student advisees. Share your expertise and add to your advising toolbox in this interactive session.
2pm	10/25/2011	E-Advising Review for Faculty	Laurel Mayo	Review how the E-Advising tool supports the advising process leaving more time for establishing and nurturing your mentor relationship with your student advisees.
2pm	10/28/2011	E-Advising Review for Faculty	Laurel Mayo	Review how the E-Advising tool supports the advising process leaving more time for establishing and nurturing your mentor relationship with your student advisees.
2pm	11/1/2011	Modeling Learning as a Process	Laurel Mayo	Learn how to establish a community of practice in your classroom where conversation and participation can occur to help ignite your students' curiosity and desire to learn.
2pm	11/4/2011	Modeling Learning as a Process	Laurel Mayo	Learn how to establish a community of practice in your classroom where conversation and participation can occur to help ignite your students' curiosity and desire to learn.
2pm	11/15/2011	Intro to Smart Boards for Faculty	TBD	This introductory session will acquaint faculty with both the physical interaction with the Smart Board and desktop controls and features. Pedagogical applications of the tools will be addressed, but the primary focus will be on technical features rather than instructional strategies.
2pm	11/18/2011	Intro to Smart Boards for Faculty	TBD	This introductory session will acquaint faculty with both the physical interaction with the Smart Board and desktop controls and features. Pedagogical applications of the tools will be addressed, but the primary focus will be on technical features rather than instructional strategies.