Collections

General Book Collection: includes works on philosophy; religion; Methodist history; American, Texas, and local history; art; and literature. Many of these works are signed or limited editions.

University Archives: This collection includes college catalogs from 1890 to the present, yearbooks from 1906 to 1996, The Handout, The Rambler, Practicum Reports, Theses, Nurse Anesthesia papers, Student Handbooks, faculty and staff handbooks, and general histories of the college as well as information about individual alumni, faculty/staff, trustees, and student organizations.

Bobby Bragan Collection: Bobby Bragan's association with professional baseball spans more than 60 years. Locally, he is remembered as the player and manager for the Fort Worth Cats from 1948 through 1953. The collection includes jerseys, letters, photographs, posters and other memorabilia related to the various teams Mr. Bragan has been associated with over the course of his career. In addition, there are over 700 books, most of which are about baseball, including team media guides, biographies, team histories and baseball reference books.

The H. Howard Hughes Performing Arts Collection: Dr. H. Howard Hughes, Professor of English, 1935-1968, set the Guinness record for "The Most Ardent Theatergoer" by attending 6,136 shows during the period 1957 to 1987. The collection includes programs, brochures, and newspaper clippings as well as fliers and other promotional materials for theater productions, concerts, and other artistic performances taking place between 1925 and 1989. The bulk of the material relates to Dallas-Fort Worth and the surrounding area, but there is also material from Canadian, European, and the Broadway productions as well.
